What you will receive for your quote

A full conversation discussing your project brief, leading to aims & objectives as a guideline.

My time shooting your photographs.

The time spent processing your pictures. (This includes, cropping, colour editing, sharpening and removal of any objects if necessary).

Supply & Delivery of high resolution pictures digitally to you (USB supply available upon request).

A license/the right to use your pictures. I don't place a limit on time however there may be restrictions on how, where & when you use them. In essence I own the copyright and loan the pictures to you for your use. All of this will be explained prior to shooting on your quote and is standard practice.

I aim to store all of your photographs in cold storage for future use if necessary.
